

ANYBODY CAN OBSERVE THE SABBATH,
BUT MAKING IT
HOLY SURELY TAKES THE REST OF THE WEEK.

SPECIAL DAYS IN LENT

THE ART OF FAITH

Wednesdays, February 24 – March 30

6:30 pm – Soup & Bread

7:00 pm – Study & Discussion

7:50 – Bread & Cup

Again this year, we will join in The Art of Faith, a journey through Lent as we explore anew some key Lenten themes and concepts through the lens of classical and contemporary visual art. Artwork will be projected for us to focus our study and discussion. Led by Jim McIntire. Each night will begin with soup and end with communion.

February 24 – Power

March 3 – Pharisees

March 10 – Parables

March 17 – Palms

March 24 – Passion

ASH WEDNESDAY

February 17, 7:30 pm

at Union UMC

Rev. James F. McIntire, preaching

We begin Lent with an ecumenical service of ashes and communion with St. Faith's Church, Temple Lutheran Church, and Union UMC.

Ashes symbolize this season of reflection, focus and repentance showing us a direction through the wildernesses of life.

HOLY WEEK

March 28 – April 4

Palm/Passion Sunday

March 28

Breakfast, 9:30 am ~ Worship 11:00 am

The joyous entrance into Jerusalem is followed by the trauma of confrontation, arrest, and conviction. A carpet of palms begins our journey, passion continues it through Holy Week and into today's world. Worship will include the distribution of palms.

Maundy Thursday

April 1, 7:30 pm

Our worship will be a creative celebration around tables as we recall Jesus' Last Supper with his friends and his new commandment – mandatum novus – to love one another.

Good Friday

April 2

2:00 pm – Community Worship at Trinity Lutheran
(Sanctuary is open at Noon for prayer)

7:30 pm – Worship at Temple Lutheran Church

Jesus' hours on the cross and God's promise are brought to mind and emotion today as we worship in the starkness of a stripped Sanctuary, the darkness of the day, and the solitary Christ Candle which challenges us to address each other in light of the Crucifixion.

Resurrection Sunday

April 4

Egg Hunt, 10:30 am ~ Worship, 11:00 am

Come celebrate the Resurrection with your faith family as we share in music, good news, and new life ! The stone is rolled away ... the tomb is empty ... Christ is risen! Alleluia!
